

Boulden MultiMedia Partial List of Video Productions

ANNENBERG CLASSROOM & STUDENT VOICES:

(www.annenbergclassroom.org and www.student-voices.org)

How a bill becomes a Federal Law

U.S. Rep. Pete Sessions and high school students in Irving, Texas help explain the process of a bill becoming a law.

Signing Statements

The sometimes controversial use of Presidential Signing Statements is explained.

The Structure and Jurisdiction of Federal and State Courts – two parts

Questions about the functions of federal and state court systems are posed by students and answered by federal and state judges.

Separation of Powers

Federal judges answer students' questions about how the Founding Fathers established the three branches of government.

Mayors and Government in a Time of Crisis

A report on how the mayors and local governments in New York City and Washington, DC area responded to the terrorist attacks of 9/11.

Voting: The Power of One

Students report on the different kinds of voting systems used throughout the country, from punch cards to electronic touch machines, and demonstrate how to use them.

I Do Solemnly Swear: What Does a Mayor Do?

Students in Orlando and Houston spend the day with their city's mayor.

Who Has the Power: Local, State or Federal Governments?

Students use local issues to explain the roles of the different levels of government.

Developing the Capacities of Citizenship

This video uses clips from several Student Voices projects around the country to explain how this national civics education project works.

18 & Voting!

We visit voter registration assemblies in Philadelphia public high schools where students explain the importance of registering and voting.

How to Create a Successful Civics Fair Project

We watch high school students as they identify issues they care about the most and create final projects about those issues.

How to Use the Student Voices Website

This video shows teachers and students how to navigate the Student Voices website.

How to Organize a Candidate Debate

Senior staff from the campaigns of U.S. Senator Rick Santorum and Bob Casey, Jr. tell students how to organize a candidate debate or a candidate visit to their school.

Student Voices Elections and Campaigns Curriculum Video and Student Voices Local Government Curriculum Video

These videos use graphics, classroom video and teacher interviews to show teachers how to utilize the Student Voices curricular materials.

Our Student Voices

I coordinated video productions of town halls and forums where students interviewed local government leaders about community issues. I also helped launch "Student Voices on PSTV," a half-hour program that aired each month on the Philadelphia School District's television station where students interviewed city council members and other top officials. I handled the technical requirements to make sure the program got on the air and worked with students as they created issue-based videos for the program.

ANNENBERG PUBLIC POLICY CENTER

(www.annenbergpublicpolicycenter.org)

I have produced other videos for the Annenberg Public Policy Center, including a 10th anniversary video and the 2004 Election Debriefing.

GUARDIAN NURSES

(www.guardiannurses.com)

The video for this client focuses on patients and their families who are dealing with serious medical issues and how a Guardian Nurse helps them navigate the health care system.

KIRBY BATES ASSOCIATES

(www.kirbybates.com)

The video I produced for Kirby Bates uses graphics and interviews with clients and nurse executives to explain how Kirby Bates recruits nurse executives, provides interim management and consulting services.

WOMENS WAY

(www.womensway.org)

Annual Local Honoree Award Videos and Thirtieth Anniversary Videos